Parents /Caregivers

Children are invited to attend a performance that deals with Protective Behaviours by some very skilful police artisans.

CHILD PROTECTION WEEK 2016

Toowoomba District Crime Prevention Unit presents

A Protective Behaviours Pantomime Empire Theatre Church – Monday 5 September

Departing the school at 12:45 and returning to school 2:30pm

Children from Year 2 will learn about staying safe in a fun and interesting way with the help of Polly Woggle and Bozz Woggle.

Entry to the pantomime and the bus costs are completely free of charge due to generous support from the community as well as Fairview Heights State School.

Parents are required to fill out the permission slip and return it to the school by Friday 26 August. Only children with permission will be able to attend.

Yours in education

Gary Pascoe (Deputy Principal)
