Dear Parents / Caregivers

In Term 4 students from all Prep classes will travel to Amaroo Environmental Education Centre. They will be participating in an exciting new program called 'Marvellous Mini Murris'. They will experience Indigenous cultural exploration through a bushwalk, senses examination, art and craft and traditional Indigenous games. The program is specifically aimed at early childhood, giving children hands on experience of Indigenous culture. Indigenous perspectives are embedded throughout the Australian Curriculum so this will be a very valuable experience for all students.

The children will attend on the following days:

Prep F & Prep V on Monday 10th October

Prep S, P-2S & Prep H on Tuesday 11th October

The students will travel to the venue by bus in full school uniform with comfortable enclosed footwear (Joggers or sneakers).

The Bus will DEPART @ 9.00 AM sharp and RETURN by 3:00pm. The Cost of this excursion is $12.50. Payment and Permission Slips are due by Wednesday 5 October – No Late Payments Accepted. FHSS refund policy applies.

They will be required to bring a "LITTERLESS" lunch/ morning tea as Amaroo has no facility for the disposal of rubbish.

School rules will apply at all times.

ALL students are encouraged to attend this very valuable educational experience.

Many Thanks

Prep Teachers.
