Are you looking to gain relevant job skills?

The skills and experiences gained by taking on a position within the P&C aren’t just of value to our school. They can also help you in developing skills which you may be able to transfer to paid employment.

Does this interest you?

Our P&C is currently seeking parents who are interested in a range of operations.

P&C Secretary - may assist you in developing administrative skills including handling and preparing correspondence, agenda preparation and minute taking.

Tuckshop volunteers are required to perform tasks which include food preparation and handling, customer service and money handling.

Fundraising / event coordinators are required to order and acquit stock, handle and reconcile money and prepare communication to parents and other community members.
